GK Corner: Brother Knights, I hope that you and your families had a very Merry Christmas. This month there are a lot of great opportunities to spend time with your brother knights. I hope to see you at these functions. Please refer to the calendar at the end of this newsletter.

Treasurer's Report: We presently have 1324.27 in our account.

Dues: The billings for dues and T.V. Mass assessment for 2006 are being sent out to you. We would appreciate receiving your payment as soon as possible. The Supreme Council and the State Council's assessments are paid by your dues. We encourage you to pay the $5.00 assessment for the T.V. Mass on Channel 8. It makes us feel good that we support the Mass on Channel 8. If there are any questions about your dues, please contact @ 423-2148 or email at dscunn@inebraska.com.

Perpetual Adoration: Just a reminder that Blessed Sacrament has open hours (see weekly bulletin announcements). This is a great opportunity to spend an additional hour with our Lord Jesus Christ. I promise you will really come to appreciate this time.

Insurance Minute: If you know of an eligible Catholic family man that is a "people person" and has a great work ethic, this position could be for him. Please let me know. We also offer a full line of company benefits. If you have any questions about this opportunity please contact me at mjmain@juno.com.

Information Needed: Supreme would like a list of any member of the Knights of Columbus who have served or are still serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Please let me know at 475-0715 or mjmain@juno.com.

Drawings: We are 0 for 4 on our drawings at our meetings. Last month, we drew Rod Beren's name. Currently, the pot is $52.
